

DERWENT PENCIL MUSEUM

Our Museum attracts over 80,000 visitors a year. For 2022, we have a redesigned exhibition of pencil manufacture and local history, as well as our food and drink take-away service, retail space, including Derwent products, and other art materials and gifts. We also offer art demonstrations.

We continue with our Covid-safe procedures to keep our staff and visitors as safe as possible whilst giving our visitors an exciting and interesting experience.

WE ARE NOW RECRUITING:

1 Weekend Museum Assistant

To work one day each weekend throughout the year, plus additional days during school/college/university holidays.

4 Seasonal Museum Assistants

We're looking for enthusiastic customer focused people to help run our thriving Museum, take-away & retail shop to work on a zero-hours basis but we would anticipate working from 14th March to approx. 31st October (but could be earlier finish to fit in with school or University or other commitments), minimum of 3 days, maximum 5 days per week.

You will have some experience of retail, café work or similar, and an interest in art would be an advantage.

Competitive rates of pay

Please send your CV to Judy Sutcliffe at judy.sutcliffe@acco.com or to Tracy Strong at the Derwent Pencil Museum tracy.strong@acco.com