Product Description

The LC140 Backpack is versatile and stylish day carry solution that gives university students the room they need to stash everything when they're on the go. A convertible carry design makes switching from a traditional backpack to a single strap you can sling over your shoulder a breeze. There are padded sections for both a laptop and a tablet and quick access pockets are perfect for storing items you want to get to fast. And for those times when you need a little extra room, uncurl the roll top to expand the storage capacity for your accessories, snacks, drinks, or whatever else you need to help get through the day.

Features

- Convertible carry design so you can quickly go from double strap to single strap options
- Padded sections that hold up to a 14.4" laptop and 10" tablet
- Front quick access pockets
- Expandable accessory storage
- Padded comfort handle
