Product Description

Whether it's the classroom, conference room or family room, the iPad has revolutionized how people find and share information. To protect that investment, we developed the BlackBelt 2nd Degree Rugged Case and designed it to meet military-grade testing. By surrounding your iPad in a strong, cushioned layer of rubber, it provides protection against drops and bumps. The best way to keep your tablet safe is to prevent drops, so the BlackBelt 2nd Degree features a hand strap that makes your iPad easy to hold, especially when you're standing. The BlackBelt also has a built-in, multi-position stand that lets you work, or play, hands-free. A raised bezel and screen protector help prevent scratches and since sliding off a table is just as dangerous as falling out of your hand, the BlackBelt 2nd Degree's rubber construction offers great surface grip.
