

Swingline® Commercial Electric Punch, 3 Holes, 28 Sheets

A7074535

Product Description

High performance, 3-hole electric punch with fixed punch heads is fast and reliable. It's ideal for high volume projects and for use in shared workspaces.

Features

- Automatic jam reverse ensures trouble-free punching with fewer disruptions. Punches through as many as 28 sheets of paper, creating precise 9/32" holes.
- Precisely engineered for smooth function with less noise disruption, it's an excellent choice for shared workspaces and quiet offices
- Mess is minimized with a built-in plastic chip tray that slides in and out of the base. It stores paper scraps until you're ready to dispose of them.
- Punch with a simple press of the capacitive touch screen. Built-in vertical paper guide for easy punching. Black and gray design complements any décor.
- Swingline stands behind this high-quality punch with a Limited Lifetime 2 Year Warranty and a 100% Performance Guarantee
