Product Description

Protect your iPad from just about anything with a SecureBack M Series Rugged Mobility Case Bundle for iPad Air. This is the perfect bundle for work environments where employees need reliable protection for their iPad Air while they're moving around. Whether it's taking inventory, placing customer orders, or checking patient records, the rugged enclosure combined with the hand and shoulder strap decreases drops and increases productivity. The rugged case utilizes dual layer construction, providing the maximum level of protection to prevent damage. The vulnerable corners of your iPad receive extra protection and the raised bezel shelters the Retina® display from scratches. The Rotating Hand Strap & Shoulder Strap make your tablet extremely safe to hold when you're on the go so you never have to worry about dropping it. The built-in ClickSafe® anchor provides a convenient way to add a layer of security by simply snapping on a ClickSafe lock (sold separately). The rugged enclosure protects against dust thanks to its port covers.
